Oooooooooo Numb. 6493.

The Daily Courant.

Monday, Auguſt 13. 1722.

THE following Addreſs of the Corporation of Eaſt-Retford in the County of Nottingham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle Lord Chamberlain of His Majeſty's Houſhold, and High Steward of the Corporation of Eaſt-Retford.

June the Eleventh, 1722.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Eaſt-Retford in the County of Nottingham.

PERMIT us, moſt gracious Sovereign, amongſt the Number of your truly loyal Subjects, to approach your Royal Throne with Hearts full of Gratitude, to expreſs our deepeſt Sence of your Majeſty's tender and paternal Care and Protection of our Religion, Laws, and Properties, and at the ſame Time to declare our utmoſt Abhorrence of thoſe vile and impious Wretches, who having equally enjoyed the Benefit of your mild Government and Adminiſtration, and ſome of them taſted of your Royal Goodneſs and Mercy after their late treacherous and traiterous Deſigns, do yet now attempt to renew their Villanies againſt your ſacred Perſon and Government.

We cannot doubt but by the Juſtice and Wiſdom of your Government, and the Vigilance of your Council, all ſuch Deſigns will be fruſtrated.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will to the utmoſt of our Power, do all that becomes loyal and dutiful Subjects, to defeat all ſuch traiterous and ſeditious Attempts, and to maintain your Majeſty's undoubted Right to theſe Kingdoms, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe, againſt all Popiſh Pretenders, and all your Majeſty's Enemies both at Home and Abroad. In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto fixed the Common Seal of our ancient Borough and Corporation, the Day and Year above-written.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Ancaſter, Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Lincoln, to the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Milita Officers of the County of Lincoln.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the ſeaſonable and happy Diſcovery of that wicked Conſpiracy which ſeveral of your Subjects have entred into, in Concert with Traytors abroad, to raiſe a Rebellion in this Kingdom in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender.

In ſuch a Juncture as this, it muſt needs be a very great Satisfaction to all your Majeſty's good Subjects, to find, that you are ſo highly and juſtly eſteemed by all Foreign Princes and States, that the Authors of this Deſign are not likely to have any Aſſiſtance, or even Countenance from Abroad; for we do not doubt, but if they ſhould venture on another Rebellion, relying upon their own Strength, they would ſoon find themſelves miſerably miſtaken, and be reduced to a Neceſſity of imploring your Royal Mercy, how notoriouſly ſoever they have abuſed it.

For what can be ſaid for Men, who after having taken the Oath of Allegiance to your Majeſty, and abjured the Pretender, behave as if they had taken that very Oath to him only, and abjur'd your Majeſty and all your Royal Family; no Church certainly but that of Rome could be pleaſed to have ſuch Men boaſt themſelves of her Communion.

For our Part, we deteſt and abhor all ſuch Practices, and ſhall always ſuſpect the Integrity of thoſe who endeavour to ſupport their Reputation, without which they could not have Credit enough to deſtroy the Peace of their native Country, or diſturb your Majeſty's Government, which we ſhall al-always be ready to defend to the utmoſt of our Power.

May the Providence of Heaven preſerve your Majeſty from all the bloody Attempts and Deſigns of your Enemies, and may your Crown, after a long and happy Reign, deſcend upon the next Proteſtant Heir of your Line for ever.

The following Addreſs of the Borough of King's-Lynn in Norfolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Robert Walpole, Eſq; Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, &c.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's-Lynn in Norfolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE traiterous Projects of turbulent and ingrateful Spirits, are maliciouſly hatching (in defiance of Mercy and Goodneſs) to give Uneaſineſs to your Royal Mind, we your dutiful Subjects, among others whoſe Hearts are moſt zealouſly affected with loyal Regard to your ſacred Perſon, and juſt Admiration of your Princely Virtues, humbly beg Leave to make our moſt ſolemn Proteſts of abhorring ſuch wicked Deſigns: And as we hope theſe and all other Rebellious Practices will have their fatal Turn on the Heads of their Authors and Abettors, we beſeech your Majeſty to accept our hearty and unfeigned Aſſurances of our conſtant Fidelity and trueſt Allegiance to the moſt merciful and beſt of Princes.

London, Auguſt 13.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Stockholm, July 31. 'Major General Arnold, 'Envoy Extraordinary from Denmark, has already had ſeveral Conferences with Count Horn and 'other Senators, concerning the Regulation of the 'Norway Limits. The Diſpute that has happened 'about the Limits in Finland, chiefly relate to the 'Diſtrict of Wirolow, but 'tis believed an Expe'dient will be found to accommodate the Diffe'rence. Lieutenant-General Stakelbergh, Gover'nour of Finland, writes from Abo, that the For'tifications there and at Helſingfos are finiſhed. 'It is juſt now reported, that the King of Sweden 'is gone from Schonen to the Iſle of Weenan, to 'have an Interview there with the King of Den'mark.

Hamburg, Aug. 11. 'The Muſcovite Reſident 'here has received Advices from his Court that the 'Czar's Army which is gone towards Perſia, con'ſiſts of 36000 choſen Men, and twice that Num'ber of Calmucks and other Tartars, who are to 'take Revenge upon Miri-Weys and the Usbeki'ans, for the Miſchiefs done by them to the 'Ruſſians ſome Years ago; and that an Alliance is 'agreed upon between the Czar and the unfortu'nate King of Perſia. The Buſineſs of the Suc'ceſſion of Ploen remains yet in Suſpence, and it 'looks as though nothing would be done in it be'fore Count Freytag's Arrival at the Court of Den'mark, who is fully charged with Inſtructions on 'that Head from the Court of Vienna.

Hague, Aug. 14. 'It ſeems very probable that 'the States of Holland, who are to break up their 'Aſſembly To-morrow, will leave undecided, till 'their next Meeting at the End of this Month, 'three of the principal Matters they have been 'deliberating upon this good while, viz. The 'Farming of the Cuſtoms; the Sorts of Merchan'dize that are to be added to the Liſt of thoſe per'mitted to be imported by the Placard for prevent'ing the Contagion; and the Sale of all the Do'maines of the Province which was reſolved upon 'ſome time ago, but has ſince met with new Diffi'culties from the Commiſſaries of the Domaines. 'The Marquis de Monteleone ſignified ſome Days 'paſt, that his Court has ordered, that the two 'Youths and the Sailors who had deſerted the 'Dutch Ships, ſhould be again reſtored to them, 'upon Condition no Violence ſhould be uſed to 'make them forſake the Romiſh Religion which 'they have newly embraced; and likewiſe, that 'the Affair concerning the Dutch Merchants who 'die inteſtate, ſhall be ſuffered to remain on the 'ſame Foot it did formerly, till an Expedient can 'be found to hinder the Subjects of Spain from 'ſuffering upon that Account for the future, as they 'pretend they have already.

Hague, Aug. 16. Advice was received here Yeſterday from Berlin, that on the 9th Inſtant the Queen of Pruſſia was happily brought to bed of a Prince. The laſt Letters from the Fleet under Admiral Grave in the Mediterranean ſay, that on the 11th paſt the Dutch Fleet joined that of Spain commanded by Don Antonio Serano, as they were ſteering towards the Bay of Altea, where the Ships of both Nations came to an Anchor, and the two Admirals concerted Meaſures to be executed againſt the Algerines. Don Antonio acquainted the Dutch Admiral, that he was ordered by the King his Maſter to lie with his Ships before Algiers, in order to prevent the going out of eight Men of War that were intended to join the Turkiſh Fleet; he therefore propoſed to the Dutch Admiral that both Fleets ſhould Sail together thither, as ſoon as that of Spain had taken in freſh Proviſions, which might be done by the 18th of July. They agreed at laſt, that Admiral Grave ſhould Sail the 12th paſt from Altea to join a Dutch Man of War commanded by Captain Akkerſtoot off of Malaga, and then to ſteer W. towards Algiers, whither Don Antonio Serano would likewiſe proceed E. the 18th, that by theſe different Courſes they might intercept the Algerine Ships in caſe they were already gone from that Port: And being arrived in the Road of Algiers, they would then deliberate more fully on what further remained proper to be put in Execution: This Agreement was concluded and ſigned by both Admirals. On the 17th paſt the Dutch Fleet was cruiſing off of Malaga, in order to join Captain Akkerſtoot's Ship, ſince when no further Advices have been received touching either of the Fleets.

London,

London, August 13.

On Thurſday laſt, the Funeral of his Grace John late Duke of Marlborough, was performed with the greateſt Solemnity and Magnificence.

At Marlborough Houſe at St. James's the firſt Room was hung with Bayes; the ſecond with Cloth, where was a Chair of State at the upper End with a Majeſty Scutcheon over it; the third was hung with Velvet, floored with Bayes, having at the upper End an Aſcent of three Steps, where ſtood a Bed of State of Black Velvet properly adorned, with Black Plumes at the Corners of the Teſter; at the Head of the Bed a Majeſty Scutcheon; the Coffin was covered with Crimſon Velvet, over which was a fine Holland Sheet, and on that a Pall of black Velvet; upon which was laid a Compleat Suit of Armour gilt, with a General's Truncheon in the Right Hand, the great Collar of the Order of the Garter about the Neck with the George appendant, and the Garter on the Left Leg, a rich Sword in a Crimſon Velvet Scabbard, being buckled to the Side by a like Velvet Belt; on one ſide of the Head was laid the Cap of a Prince of the Empire, and on the other ſide a Ducal Coronet, under the Head a Crimſon Velvet Cuſhion with Gold Fringes and Taſſels; the Feet reſting on a Lyon couchant holding a Banner, being his Grace's Creſt; and round about the Body were placed the ſeveral Enſigns which will be afterwards mentioned in the Proceſſion, with ſeveral Scutcheons on the Columns of the Bed properly diſpoſed. The ſaid three Rooms were adorned with a great Number of Scutcheons of ſeveral Sorts, with Cyphers and Badges interſperſed, and with Silver Sconces and large Silver Candleſticks having Wax Tapers burning in them. Two other large Rooms were hung with Cloth and adorned in the like Manner, for the Reception of the Nobility and others who were invited to the Funeral.

About half an Hour after Twelve the Proceſſion began, and paſſed along the Road through St. James's Park and the Upper Park to Hide Park Corner, thence through Piccadilly, down St. James's ſtreet, through the Pallmall and by Charing-Croſs through King Street to Weſtminſter-Abbey.

A proper Diſpoſition had been made of ſuch of the Forces as were drawn from the Camp in Hide-Park to attend the Funeral: The firſt Regiment of His Majeſty's Foot Guards was drawn up in the Upper Park, with their Right next to Buckingham-Houſe; the reſt both Foot and Horſe Guards and Horſe-Grenadiers, were drawn up facing the Road through that Park on the Left of the firſt Regiment of Foot Guards, in the Order they were to file off after each other; a Train of Artillery (conſiſting of 15 Pieces of Cannon and two Mortars, with the Great Kettle Drums belonging to the Artillery on a Carriage drawn by two Horſes) and the two Companies of Cannoniers and Bombardiers were drawn up in Hide Park near the Gate towards Piccadilly; and a Detachment of the ſecond and fourth Troops of Horſe Guards was drawn up on the Parade in St. James's Park, in order to cloſe the Proceſſion.

This Diſpoſition being made, the March was in the following Manner.

The Detachment of Horſe-Grenadiers; commanded by Col Fane.

The Detachment of the firſt and third Troops of Horſe-Guards; commanded by the Lord Newburgh.

The Artillery with the two Companies of Cannoniers and Bombardiers; commanded by Col. Bourgard.

The Detachment of the third Regiment of Foot Guards; commanded by the Earl of Dunmore.

The Detachment of the ſecond Regiment of Foot Guards; commanded by the Earl of Scarborough.

The firſt Regiment of Foot Guards; in the Rear of which came Major General Tatton as Major of that Regiment.

The General Officers, viz.

Brig. Honeywood,	Brig. Croſs, Brig. Munden.
Brig. Stanwix.	Brig. Bowles.
Maj. Gen. Wightman.	Maj. Gen. Wade.
Lieut. Gen. Macartney.	Lieut Gen. Wills.

The Earl of Cadogan, General and Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Forces, Maſter-General of the Ordnance, and Collonel of the firſt Regiment of Foot-Guards; attended by

Col. Otway, as Quarter-Maſter-General (in the Place of Col. Armſtrong, who being Surveyor-General of the Ordnance was obliged to attend at the Tower.)	Col. Williamſon, Adjutant-General.

and by his Lordſhip's Six Aides de Camp.

Col. Manning.	Col. Husk
Col. Morton.	Col. Morgan
Capt. Macartney.	Lord Carmichael

They were followed by the eldeſt Company of Grenadiers of the firſt Regiment of Guards.

All the Officers were in ſuch cloſe Mourning as the Military Profeſſion admits, the Colours furled and wrapped in Cypreſs the Drums and Kettle-Drums covered with black Bays and Scutcheons, the Trumpets covered with Cypreſs and having Banners of the Arms of the deceaſed, the Officers and Soldiers bearing their ſeveral Arms turned in a Funeral Poſture.

Next came, on Foot, The Porter of the Heralds Office in a Gown of Cloth, with a black Staff in his Hand.

Eight Conductors in like Gowns, with black Staves in their Hands.

Out-Penſioners of Chelſea-Hoſpital, in Number 73, (anſwerable to the Years of his Grace's Age,) in like Gowns, with the Badge of his Grace's Creſt on one Arm; two and two.

Trumpets and Kettle-Drums on Horſeback having Banners with the ſame Arms as on the following Standard.

The Standard on a Lance carried by Major Gardiner, ſupported by two Officers in their Military Mourning.

A Mourning Horſe covered with black Cloth, capariſoned with the ſame Arms as on the Standard, with Plumades before and behind, led by a Groom on Foot.

Forty Perſons in Mourning Cloaks, on Horſeback, two and two.

Trumpets, having Banners with the ſame Arms as the following Guidon.

Rouge Croix, Purſuivant of Arms.

The Guidon on a Lance, carried by Major Keightley, ſupported by two Officers in their Military Mourning.

The ſecond Mourning Horſe, covered with black Cloth, capariſoned with the ſame Arms as on the Guidon, with Plumades, led by a Groom on Foot.

Forty Perſons in Mourning Cloaks, on Horſeback.

Trumpets having Banners with the ſame Arms as the Banner of Woodſtock.

Rouge Dragon, Purſuivant of Arms.

The Banner of Woodſtock on a Lance, carried by Lieutenant Collonel Purcell, ſupported by two Officers in their Military Mourning.

The third Mourning Horſe, covered with black Cloth, capariſoned with the ſame Arms as on that Banner, with Plumades, led by a Groom on Foot.

Trumpets having Banners of the deceaſed as a Prince of the Empire.

Blue-Mantle, Purſuivant of Arms.

His Grace's Banner as Prince of the Empire, on a Lance, carried by Lieutenant Collonel Petit, ſupported by two Officers in their Military Mourning.

The fourth Mourning Horſe, covered with Cloth, capariſoned with the Arms of Prince of the Empire, with Plumades, led by a Groom on Foot.

Forty Perſons in Mourning Cloaks, on Horſeback.

Mr. Smith Secretary to the deceaſed.

The Rev. Mr. James and Mr. Cole, Chaplains to the deceaſed.

Two Trumpets in His Majeſty's Livery, with Banners of the Order of the Garter.

Portcullis, Purſuivant of Arms.

The Banner of the Order of the Garter, on a Lance, carried by Collonel Pendelbury, ſupported by two Officers in their Military Mourning.

The

The fifth Mourning Horſe, covered with black Cloth, capariſoned with the ſame Arms as on the Banner of the Garter, with Plumades, led by a Groom on Foot

Forty Perſons in Mourning Cloaks, on Horſeback.

Mr. Hodges, Mr. Lambert, Mr. Humphreys, Mr. Pitts, Chamberlain, Steward, Treaſurer, and Comptroller, to the Deceaſed, with the white Staves of their Offices, a-breaſt.

Three Trumpets in His Majeſty's Livery, having Banners with the ſame Arms as on the great Banner.

Cheſter, Herald of Arms

The great Banner of his Grace's full Arms, on a Lance, carried by Colloocl Hopkey, ſupported by two Officers in their Military Mourning

The chief Mourning Horſe, covered with Velvet, capariſoned with the ſaid Arms, led by an Equerry, aſſiſted by a Groom.

The Spurs, and The Gauntlets, } carried by Somerſet Herald of Arms.

Helmet and Creſt, carried by Lancaſter Herald of Arms.

The Targe, and The Sword, } carried by Windſor Herald of Arms.

His Grace's Surcoat of Arms, carried by Norroy King of Arms.

The Body, with the Suit of Armour, &c. as on the Bed of State, in an open Chariot, with Mr. Ridley and Mr. Mitchel, two Officers of his Grace's Bed-Chamber, ſitting at the Head and Feet, in cloſe Mourning, bare-headed. The Chariot had four Columns which bore up a black Velvet Canopy lined with black Taffeta, with deep Gold Fringe, and Taſſels at each Corner, on the Top were ſeveral black Plumes with Trophies of War intermixed; the lower Part of the Chariot was adorned on both Sides with ſeveral Shields, repreſenting his Grace's Victories and Conqueſts, under which was a Scroll with this Motto, Bello hoc & plura. The Chariot was drawn by eight Horſes covered with Velvet, the two firſt Horſes capariſoned with the Arms of his Grace as Prince of the Empire, the next two with his Grace's full Arms ſurrounded with the Garter, with the Supporters, ſurmounted with the Ducal Coronet; the next two with the ſame Arms as the firſt; and the two next his Body, with his full Arms ſurrounded with the Garter as before. On each Side of the ſaid Chariot were five Captains, in their Military Mourning, each carrying a Bannerol of the Arms of the Deſcent and Lineage of the Deceaſed; each of the eight Horſes was led by a Groom, the Coachman in deep Mourning.

Immediately after the Chariot came a Horſe of State, capariſoned with Cloth of Gold, led with a Silken Rein by Captain Read his Grace's Maſter of the Horſe, in his Military Mourning, walking on Foot, aſſiſted by two Grooms on Foot.

Garter King of Arms with the Rod of his Office in his Right Hand, and as Director of the Funeral.

His Grace the Duke of Montagu chief Mourner, in deep Mourning, with the Collar of the Order of the Garter and the Star of the Order on his Cloak, in a Coach, Sir Robert Rich his Trainbearer ſitting over-againſt him.

The Earls of Sunderland and Godolphin, in the next Coach, as being Supporters to the Chief Mourner.

In five other Coaches followed.

The Duke of Somerſet,	The Duke of Newcaſtle Lord-Chamberlain.
The Duke of Grafton,	The Duke of Cleveland.
The Duke of Montroſe,	The Duke of St. Albans.
The Duke of Dorſet,	The Duke of Kent.
The Earl of Strafford,	The Earl of Peterborow.

All (except the Duke of Montroſe) having their Collars and Stars as Knights of the Garter. Theſe Ten being Aſſiſtants to the Chief Mourner.

In the two next Coaches came

The Earl of Cardigan,	The Earl of Leiceſter.
The Earl of Briſtol,	The Earl of Burlington.

Who were to ſupport the Pall in the Church.

A Horſe of Honour, richly capariſoned, led with a Silken Rein by Captain Fiſh in his Military Mourning, walking on Foot, aſſiſted by two Grooms on Foot.

His Majeſty's Coach.

His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales's Coach

Then followed the Coaches of the Nobility, &c according to their ſeveral Precedencies and Degrees.

Being arrived at the Weſt-Door of the Abbey c Weſtminſter, only thoſe Perſons who bore the Standard, Guidon, and Banners above-mentioned, and the Supporters, as alſo the Heralds, with his Grace Secretary, two Chaplains, and his four White Staf Officers, and thoſe who carried the Bannerols, entr the Church. The Chariot coming to the Door, t Armour was taken off, the Body was carried into t Church and reſted near the Entrance, while the Chi Mourner, his Supporters and Aſſiſtants, the Pa bearers, and the Nobility and others attending, aligh ed out of their Coaches, the Organ playing durin that Time. Having all entred into the Church, Velvet Canpoy being held over the Body, and t Pallbearers having taken up the Corners of the Pa the Prebends in their rich Copes and the Choir in the Surplices placed themſelves after the Great Bann and before the Heralds who carried the Trophi and ſung the Sentence in the Office for Buri I am the Reſurrection and the Life, with the two fo lowing Sentences, and continued Singing till the Bo was placed in King Henry the VIIth's Chapel.

Garter King of Arms.

The Chief Mourner, with his two Supporters, S Robert Rich bearing his Train.

The Ten Aſſiſtants.

The Nobility according to their ſeveral Prec dencies.

In this Manner they proceeded through the Sou Iſle of the Church till they came near to the Cho and then croſſing into the North Iſle went up King Henry the VIIth's Chapel, where the Bo was reſted on a Stand prepared for it in the Mi dle of the Area. The Pallbearers were ſeated Stools at each Corner of the Body; at the He the Chief Mourner, with his two Supporters, one each Hand; and his Ten Aſſiſtants were ſeated Fi on each Side of the Body; the Nobility placing ther ſelves in the Stalls. During the whole Solemnit in the Church and alſo in this Chapel, the Ba nerols were held over the Body.

An Altar by the Dean's Order was erected at t Head of King Henry the VIIth's Tomb. After t Body was ſet down in the Chapel, an Anthem was pe formed with Vocal and Inſtrumental Muſick, the Pe formers being placed on a Scaffold, hung from To to Bottom with Mourning, erected for that Purpo croſs the Chapel at the Entrance.

The Anthem being ended, the Body was carryed t a Vault at the Foot of K. Henry the VIIth's Tom the Choir ſinging, Man that is born of a Woman, an the three following Sentences, and continued ſingin them till the Body was depoſited in the Vaul Then the Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter, Dean of Weſt minſter, in his Cope, read, Foraſmuch as it hath pleaſe Almighty God, &c. Then the Choir ſung, I heard a Voic from Heaven, &c. The Service being ended, Garte King of Arms proclaimed the Stile of the Deceaſed and then his Grace's Officers breaking their Staves delivered the Pieces to Garter, who threw them in upon the Coffin.

During the Proceſſion and till the Body was depoſited, the Guns at the Tower fired, one every Minute.

The Detachments of the Horſe-Grenadiers and of the firſt and third Troops of Horſe Guards, having paſſed by the Weſt Door of the Abbey, went through Tuthil-Street to Buckingham-Houſe, and entring St. James's Park at the Gate there, marched to the Parade and drew up. The Artillery, with the two Companies of Cannoniers and Bombardiers made the ſame March, and drew up alſo on the Parade. The Detachments of the third and of the ſecond Regiment of Foot-Guards, and the firſt Regiment giment of Foot-Guards, having marched by the ſaid Abbey Door, paſſed through Queen's Square into St. James's Park, and drew up on the Parade. The Detachments of the ſecond and fourth Troops of Horſe-Guards, commanded by the Lord Forreſter (which cloſed the Proceſſion,) after they came to the ſaid Abbey Door, returned by the Way they went, marched into St. James's Park through the great Gate at the Horſe Guards, and drew up alſo on the Parade.

All the Troops and Artillery being drawn up on the Parade in St. James's Park, at a Signal given that the Body was depoſited, fired three Volleys. Then they returned to the Camp in Hide-Park, the Horſe firſt, the Foot next, and after them the Artillery.

London, Auguſt 13.

His Excellency Count Staremberg Ambaſſadour and Plenipotentiary Miniſter from the Emperour, has had private Audiences of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, in their reſpective Apartments, to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Maſter of the Ceremonies.

London, Auguſt 13.

On Saturday South Sea Stock was 88 1 8th. 88 1 half, 88 1 qr. to 88 1 half. Bank 115. India 135 1 half, to 135. African 12 3 qrs. Unſubſcribed Lottery Annuity 102 1 qr. York-Buildings 16 1 8th. Royal Exchange Aſſurance 5. London Aſſurance 5 1 qr.

London Aſſurance-Office, Aug 10, 1722.

At a General Court of the Corporation of the London Aſſurance held the 27th Day of July 1722, Reſolved Nemine Contradicente, That the Court of Directors be and are required to ſell with all convehient Speed, ſo many of the Shares of ſuch Perſons as have not hitherto paid their Calls, as will anſwer their ſaid Calls, with the Intereſt that ſhall be due thereon. The Court of Directors do hereby give Notice, that purſuant to the above Reſolution, they will continue the Sale of the Shares of ſuch Perſons as have not paid their Calls, on Tueſday next, the 14th Inſtant, at their Office in Cornhill. The Sale to begin at Eleven in the Forenoon, according to their laſt Adjournment; of which all Perſons concerned are to take Notice.

Loſt or miſlaid, two South Sea Warrants, one N° 706, for 80 l. received for Midſummer Dividend 1721. Ditto Chriſtmas Dividend 1721, N° 351, for 174 l. 9 s. 8 d. both payable to Eliſha Trenchfield, Eſq; of Red-Lyon-Square. Whoever brings them to Meſſ. Richard and Thomas Woodward in Exchange-Alley, ſhall have two Guineas Reward, and no Queſtions aſked.

Loſt on Friday the 10th Inſtant, out of the Greyhound near Hide-Park Corner, a couple of dark mottled Beagle Bitches, about 16 Inches high; one of them lately had Puppies; both of them pretty long Sterns; they went off coupled together. Whoever brings them to Williams's Coffe-houſe in St. James's-Street, or to the Greyhound from whence they were loſt, ſhall receive Three Guineas Reward, and no Queſtions aſked.

Stolen or ſtrayed out of the Grounds of Henry Sexton of Eaton, in the County of Bucks, a black Horſe, full of Silver Hairs, about 14 Hands 3 Inches high, thin bodied, a handſome Star in the Fore-head, a large Snip on the Noſe, and two white Feet behind, marked with an H on the near Buttock, and an S on the off Side of the Buttock. Whoever will bring the ſaid Horſe to Mr. Henry Sexton, at Eaton, or to Mr. Wm. Gough's, at the Black Bear Inn in Piccadilly, ſhall have a Guinea Reward.

To be Sold,

At Mr. Daniel Gray's at the Coach and Horſes in New-Bond-ſtreet, near Brook-ſtreet, a handſome Machine Chariot, fit for either Town or Country; as alſo a Four-Wheel Chaiſe to go with one Horſe or a Pair, a very handſome one; likewiſe two very handſome Chair-Chaiſes, well carved and gilt; with good Travelling-Coaches, or Chariots, or Chaiſes, of all ſorts, to be Sold, or Lett by the Year, or otherwiſe, where all Gentlemen may be furniſhed at very Reaſonable Rates. Enquire for the Coachmaker's at the abovesaid Mr. Gray's.

To be Sold,

A very pretty Freehold Eſtate, of betwixt 20 and 30 l. per Annum, being a good Houſe, with Orchards, Paſture, Arable, and Woodland, lying by a Common Side called Colshill-Green, in the Paria of Agmondesham alias Amerſham, in the County of Bucks, being a Market-Town, and about a Mile from the ſaid Eſtate, the ſaid Town being both a Thorough-Fair and a Poſt-Town, &c. Any Perſon that deſires a more particular Account, is deſired to apply to the Owner, at Wm. Wilkinſon's, at St. Mary Overies Dock, or to Joſeph Bartlett, of Giles Chalfont in the County of Bucks, Blackſmith, being in the Road, and near the ſaid Eſtate.

To be diſpoſed of,

A well-accuſtomed Brew-Houſe, and all Materials and Things thereto belonging, at Twickenham in Middleſex, late in the Poſſeſſion of Mr. James Cole, deceaſed. Inquire of Mr Henry Cole, a Glazier, in Sneer-Lane, near Temple-Bar; and of Mr. Stephen Cole, at Twickenham.

For SALE by the CANDLE,

On Wedneſday the 15th Inſtant, at Lloyd's Coffee-houſe in Lombard-ſtreet, at Six a-Clock in the Afternoon, (only one Cask of Wine in a Lott) viz. 25 Butts of excellent new Red Bene Carlos Wine; in a Cellar under a Grocer's next the Swan Tavern, Billingſgate. 15 Hhds. of extraordinary good new Red Chianty Florence Wine; in a Warehouſe up Steps in the new Gateway of Wiggans's-Key, between Billingſgate and the Cuſtom-Houſe. To be ſeen and taſted this Day and To-morrow, from 8 to 1, and from 2 to 6, and all Wedneſday (as above) till the Time of Sale. To be ſold by Tho. Harton and Wm. Gibſon, Brokers.

This Day is Publiſhed New Editions of the following Books, (viz)

I. Madam Dacier's Homer, tranſlated by Mr. Ozell, Mr. Broom, and Mr. Oldiſworth, into Blank Verſe, in five Volumes, 12ves with Cuts. Price 12 s 6 d.

II Baglivius's Practice of Phyſick. Price 6 s.

III. Boſman's Deſcription of Guinea. Price 6 s.

IV. An Appendix to the Modern Juſtice, with an Additional Extract of the Laws againſt Gaming, Gaming-Houſes, and Gameſters. Price 1 s.

V. Samuel Dolight de Vomitione, de Purgatione de Variolis & Morbillis. Price 1 s d.

VI. Cockburn's Philoſophical Eſſay concerning the Intermediate State of Bleſſed Souls, agreeable to Mr. Spectator's Notions of that State. N° 111. Price 1 s.

VII. Mr. Pope's Homer, in 6 Volumes in 12ves. with an Addition of 27 Copper Plates, and the Effigies of Mr. Pope engrav'd by Virtue. Alſo Dr. King's Hiſtorical Account of the Heathen Gods, neceſſary for the underſtanding Homer and the Ancient Poets. Price of the 7 Volumes One Guinea.

All printed for Bernard Lintot at the Croſs-Keys between the Temple-Gates.

A Specifick Tincture for the TOOTH- ACH, and all Diſorders and Defects of the Teeth and Gums whatever; one Drop of which gives inſtant Eaſe in the moſt tormenting Pain, and not only takes it away in a moment, but abſolutely cures the Tooth-ach, ſo as certainly to prevent its Return. It aſſuredly preſerves the Teeth from growing Rotten, and thoſe that are a little decayed from becoming worſe; makes the fouleſt Teeth as white as Ivory at once uſing, faſtens thoſe that are looſe, and cures the Scurvey in the Gums, cauſing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration. It is neither diſagreeable to the Smell or Taſte, but really preſerves the Teeth and Gums from all manner of Foulneſs, Corruption, and Putrefaction, and may be depended upon to anſwer the Character here given of it, literally and in every reſpect. To be had at the Two Blue Poſts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Famous PLAISTER for the Stomach, which infallibly cures all ſorts of Agues in 24 Hours Time, without any other Phyſick, as has been happily experienc'd by many Thouſands in this publick Way of Sale for above theſe 10 Years paſt, and is now eſteem'd and recommended by the moſt knowing Phyſicians, as the beſt and moſt infallible Remedy for curing Agues that ever was found out, it not having been ſo much as once known to fail; moſt of the Agues that were cured for ſome Years paſt, ſo as not to return again, were cured by it. Is ſold only at Mrs. Bell's, a Bookſeller, at the Croſs-Keys and Bible in Cornhill, near Stocks-Market, at 2 s. 6 d. the Gallypot, with Directions. At the ſame Place is alſo ſold the moſt excellent Plaiſter for Corns, being the only infallible one in the World, for giving perfect Eaſe, and taking them quite away without Trouble, as Thouſands have experienced. Price 1 s. a Box, with Directions.

LONDON, Printed by S. Gray in Awn-Corner.